

HOW TO BE A REINDEER HEARDER

A UNIQUE WAY TO EXPERIENCE SAMI LIFE
UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL – MULTI DAY
TRIP

GO NORTH

COME AND DISCOVER THE LIFE OF A REINDEER HERDER IN NORWAY, DEEP IN THE ARCTIC LANDSCAPES, AND IMMERSE YOURSELF IN SAMI CULTURE. THIS UNIQUE EXPERIENCE WILL ALLOW YOU TO PARTICIPATE IN THE DAILY TASKS OF A REINDEER HERDER, EXPLORE TRADITIONAL SAMI LIFE, AND LIVE IN HARMONY WITH NATURE.

Day 1 – Arrival and immersion into Sami life

Arrival in Alta – Welcome at the airport and transport to the base camp (approx. 2-hour drive). Accommodation – Stay in a cabin and/or tent, depending on availability, with winter-appropriate comfort.

Meal and introduction to Sami culture – Learn about Sami history, their traditional way of life, and their relationship with reindeer.

Time to prepare – Change into winter clothing (available on-site if needed).

Day 2 – Discovering the reindeer and participating in daily tasks

Morning – Breakfast followed by a 1 to 3-hour walk to meet the reindeer herd.

Lunch and storytelling – Hear stories about Sami culture, family traditions, and herd management. Afternoon – Herding tasks – You will participate in activities such as:

- Fetching water from the river,
- Chopping wood for heating,
- Caring for and feeding the reindeer.

Evening – Traditional dinner followed by storytelling about the life of reindeer herders, the seasons, and daily challenges. If the weather allows, a northern lights outing.

Day 3 – Traditional life and Sami craftsmanship

Morning – Wake up at camp, breakfast, and feeding the reindeer.

Sami craft workshop – Introduction to duodji (Sami handicrafts) or a lasso-making workshop, with insight into the cultural significance of these crafts.

Afternoon – Routine with the herd – Carry out additional practical tasks related to herding and continue learning about the reindeer herding way of life.

Evening – Dinner, followed by a final storytelling session and a late evening walk to observe the reindeer and the surrounding nature.

Day 4 – Final moments and departure

Morning – Wake up in camp, breakfast, and final feeding of the reindeer. A last chance to observe the herd before departure.

Return to Alta – Pack up and transport back to the airport for your flight home.
