Day 1: Arrive at Lakselv Airport and transfer to our family-run kennel, where we will welcome you into our family with our dogs. The first evening, we will go for a short sled ride in the area nearby to get a taste of dog sledding, getting to know the equipment and the dogs you will have on your team. Overnight in a nearby facility.

Day 2-4: The following day, we'll meet at the kennel to feed the dogs their breakfast and ensure everything is packed and ready. Two and two participants will be assigned their own team of dogs to drive and care for. We will sled through forest and over the mountain, on frozen lakes, and perhaps even down to the arctic fjord. Our main goal is to head north, where you'll be treated to breathtaking views and an authentic Arctic experience.

We will have all meals out in the wild, prepped in a traditional manner, as the locals enjoy on their mountain adventures. After two and a half days on the trail, we'll return to the kennel in the afternoon to unpack and enjoy one final dinner together. Last night is in a nearby facility.

Day 5: After breakfast, you'll be transferred back to Lakselv Airport for your departure.
